ARMISTICE

Of One Day Granted Germans in Order That They Might Bury Their Dead

25,000 of the Kaiser's Soldiers Killed or Wounded in Attack on Belgian City of Liege

Italy Refuses to Join Germany in War Upon Great Britain, France and Russia

Armistice Asked By The Germans Is Granted.

London, England, August 8.—A dispatch to the Post from Brussels says that the Belgians have granted the armistice for twenty-four hours requested by the Germans and that the latter are now collecting their wounded and burying their dead. The Germans have with drawn to a less exposed position where they can recuperate.

According to rumors at Maestricht, the German Crown Prince is at the head of reinforcements which are expected from Aix La Chapelle. A Brussels dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company gives a report that a Bavarian corps has been defeated by the French at Marrecha, north of Luxembourg. Many prisoners are said to have been taken.

The siege of Liege is the outstanding feature of the European war. The latest advices received by way of London and the official dispatches say that Liege still holds out against the attack of the German army of the Meuse.

The Germans have asked for a twenty-four-hour armistice to bury their dead but the governor of Liege, Lieutenant General Lemmen, has not acceded to this request, so far as is known.

On the authority of the Belgian war ministry the German casualties in battle around Liege number 25,000, according to their own admission. An official statement issued from Berlin described the attempt on the Liege fortress as unsuccessful and the assault of the Germans as a "unique act of heroism" and added that it will not have the slightest influence on the larger operations of the army.

German diplomats have been trying to win Italy to the German side by negotiations and direct appeal to King Victor Emmanuel, but without success. The Italian ambassador at London in addressing a great assembly, which gathered in front of the embassy, said that Italy had declared her neutrality and would adhere to it.

Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, denied that there had been an engagement between German and British fleets in the North Sea.

Appeals of Germany to Italy Are In Vain.

Rome, via Paris, August 7.—The German Government is using its utmost efforts to bring about a change in Italy's attitude in the present situation. Direct appeals have been made to King Victor Emmanuel, but all in vain. It is asserted that Italy, having declared her neutrality, intends to maintain it.

Italy's position as a member of the Triple Alliance, and therefore an ally of Germany under certain conditions, has been discussed in every phase and the general consensus of opinion seems to be that the Italian people would never permit an act of hostility against France and Great Britain.

Crown Prince, Not Kaiser, Blamed For Hurting Germany Into International War.

New York.—The International News Service publishes the following dispatch:

Paris.—A graphic story of how Germany came to be plunged into a great war with all Europe reached Paris. The responsibility for Germany's position rests on the shoulders of the bellicose Crown Prince and not on the Kaiser himself.

While the Emperor was cruising in Norwegian waters the Crown Prince, co-operating heartily with the military party, threw himself into preparing the way for a declaration of war upon Russia.

When the Kaiser arrived in Berlin the all-out effort, headed by the Crown Prince, was too far for the ruler to draw back without compromising the nation. (Continued on fourth page.)

AMENDMENT OF 1909 MAY PROVE INVALID.

Frankfort, Ky., August 7.—When Lewis County attempted to dispose of road bonds amounting to $150,000 to Louisville bankers it was learned that the Constitutional amendment adopted by the people in 1909, permitting counties to incur an indebtedness for road improvements to the amount of five per cent of the assessed value of the property, may be unconstitutional as former Governor Augustus E. Willson did not issue a proclamation announcing that the constitutional amendment had been adopted. Section 236 of the Constitution relating to the amendments to the Constitution provides that if an amendment is adopted by the voters it shall be so proclaimed by the Governor. There is no record in the Governor's office showing that Governor Willson proclaimed the adoption of the amendment. The records of the Election Commissioners show that the amendment was adopted by the people. If the amendment is unconstitutional counties wishing to vote bonds for the improvement of roads will have to go back to the two per cent limit instead of the five per cent limit prescribed in the amendment.
